—RE-OPENED 1885.—

THE MADISON HOTEL.

This commodious Hotel is located on the corner of Second and Mulberry Sts., above high water mark, surrounded by forest trees, distant an hundred feet from any other structure; every room in the building is an outside room, grates in most of the apartments, bath and water closets convenient, gas throughout, telephone in the office, commercial sample rooms on first floor, billiards and refreshment parlors in the basement, commodious parlors for gents and ladies on office floor, croquet grounds and swings in the park. This house has more real comforts than any public house on the Ohio river. There are but few watering places that have more attractions than can be found at the Madison Hotel and in the city of Madison, and many more comforts are to be had here than at watering places generally. Reliable PORTERS attend the arrival of every train and steamboat to convey guests to the Hotel.

THE HOTEL WILL BE KEPT OPEN NIGHT AND DAY.

Mr. James Garrison and Mr. Joe Ziegler are in the office.

Rates—Two Dollars per Day. Special rates for monthly guests.
